

Masergy Named 2018 Visionary Spotlight Award Winner for SD-WAN

DALLAS – September 6, 2018 – Masergy, a leading provider of hybrid networking, managed security and cloud communications solutions, announced today that Beka Business Media, producers of ChannelVision Magazine, has named Masergy a recipient of the “2018 Visionary Spotlight Award.” Masergy was recognized in the SD-WAN and SD-Branch category.

“Masergy is truly honored by ChannelVision’s recognition,” said Chris MacFarland, CEO, Masergy. “Our relentless focus on delivering agile, customized and secure solutions - coupled with world-class customer service - ensures that our partners can deliver real value to their customers, and we’re excited to continue to innovate alongside them.”

The annual Visionary Spotlight competition was created to highlight channel and service provider innovations in communications. The awards honor outstanding products, services, and deployments across numerous technology categories. Winners exemplify overall innovation, capacity for forward-thinking execution, creativity and feature set differentiation. They also offer channel partners a variety of opportunities to boost their roles as trusted providers.

“We are once again honored to showcase so many top innovators and industry visionaries in the channel and communications space,” said Berge Kaprelian, president, Beka Business Media. “The caliber of the 2018 nominations exceeded all expectations. This just highlights the rapid acceleration of meaningful, cutting-edge deployments and product/service design and engineering across our industry today. We congratulate Masergy for this well-deserved recognition.”
