

MASERGY ANNOUNCES INNOVATIVE PROCESS TO EARN 2019 STEM COLLEGE SCHOLARSHIPS

Prizes totalling $10,000 available for most impactful inventions

DALLAS – Dec. 05, 2018 – Masergy, a leading provider of secure hybrid networking, cloud communications and managed security solutions, is announcing its Spring and Fall 2019 STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering, Mathematics) Scholarship program with an easy and fun video application process. The new format is ideal for busy students interested in competing.

“We are passionate about rewarding STEM innovations because of their potential to change the world in a meaningful way,” said James Parker, CEO, Masergy. “With so many industries where these skills can be applied, we want to encourage students to dream big and make their ideas a reality. We look forward to seeing the ingenuity and creativity displayed by the participants.”

STEM majors at a four-year accredited university are eligible for one of two $5,000 awards. Interested students should submit a maximum of 60-second video showcasing a STEM-related innovation they developed. Videos should be uploaded with @MASERGY on Twitter using hashtag #MasergySTEMscholarship. A Masergy judging panel will determine winners based on the originality and impact of their invention.

Submissions are currently being accepted until April 15 for Spring and August 15 for the Fall semesters. Click here for a quick tutorial on the video submission process. Visit <https://masergy.com/stem-scholarship> for more information about the program.
